- To shop for groceries, including fresh food, directly from Walmart using your food benefits, click the icon on the right side of the page, above the categories. A Walmart.com account is required.
- The Walmart.com website will open in a separate browser tab. Shopping through Walmart.com allows for more fresh foods and better selection versus shopping on Healthy Benefits App.
- If you select a scheduled delivery, there will be an associated fee that will not be covered by your food benefits. You will need to pay for any additional delivery fees with a secondary payment (other than the benefit card).
- Alternatively, store pickup is always free and will not have additional fees.
